

Call for Expression of Interest (Eoi) for members to join the International Committee

The International Committee of LG Professionals Australia is an advisory body which provides high level technical advice to the National Board, the organisation and specifically to the Program Management team. The members of this committee meet quarterly to discuss and share updates on some specific agenda and at the same time, they provide strategic and technical guidance to the program implementation team in terms of business development and organisational development.

The LG Professionals Australia's international program is in a period of rapid expansion both in terms of international partnerships and exchanges, as well as technical advisory support to developing countries and their system of local level government.

LG Professionals Australia is looking for two highly motivated and qualified International Committee members who will be serving the Committee in a voluntary basis for a period of at least 12 months. An ideal international committee member would have:

1. Working experience in international development
2. An understanding of DFAT and its grant system, or similar
3. Understanding of, or experiencing working with, non-for profit sector ideally with international NGOs in Australia or United Nations bodies or similar
4. Understanding of fund raising for aid/charity in Australia
5. Understanding of the developmental challenges in the Asia Pacific region.

Interested applicants are requested to send their brief resume to the International Programs and Policy Manager of LG Professionals Australia at programs@lgprofessionalsaustralia.org.au by 15 July 2017.
