Wednesday 24 May 17 - Hobart Highlights with Lunch – min' 12 guests, max 20

8:30am -4:00pm

This is a delightful day out, with a bit of the best of everything Hobart has to offer. We start out with a coach from the Hotel to the botanic gardens for an early morning stroll to take in the autumn colours and selected parts of the gardens. Included is a guided tour of the Antarctic House – so be sure to dress warmly. Then back onto the coach for a scenic drive across the Tasman Bridge to a favourite look-out to get wonderful views of Hobart from across the Derwent River. Then time for coffee back across the river and up to Mt Neslon for more breathtaking views along with picnic sweet or savoury slices to share. Fuelled and warmed it's time for the summit of Mt Wellington – which is at least 10 degrees colder than the city, so rug up warm. After all the lovely sights, it will be time for lunch at a historic location followed by a short history walk along the docks to the final destination for the day: Mawson's Hut

Highlights

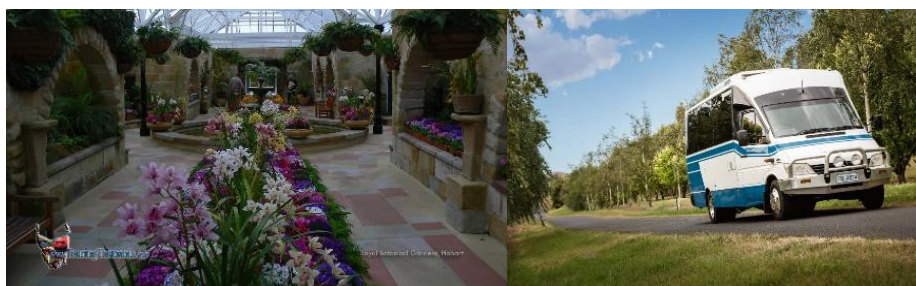

- Luxury coach from Grand Chancellor Hotel to all the sight-seeing locations
- Guided tour around selected parts of the Botanic Gardens
- Sight-seeing from key vantage points
- Morning coffee & tea, plus sweet or savoury slice platter to share
